

Save the Rainforest

You're one in a million, and so is your opinion! Our 1 Million Letters campaign makes it possible for you to save the rainforest simply by writing a letter, regardless of your ability to raise or donate money.

Directions:

Write a letter about why you love nature, and why we should protect it. Draw a picture to illustrate why nature is important!

Include your first name, age, and state or country

I like nature because the forest brings me peace. I want to protect the rare plants that can cure diseases.

First Name, Age: Abby 9
State-Country: Ca, USA

I like Nature Because Monkeys are my favorite Animal. I want to protect them because there cutting and destroying there habitat.

First Name, Age: Paige, 8
State-Country: Ca, USA

For every letter, a Reserva Donor will pay $3 toward this youth funded project to purchase land in the Choco Rainforest of Ecuador. That is enough to protect a classroom-sized area of rainforest. 93 letters purchase an ACRE of land on the reserve.

Please e-mail a scanned copy of picture of your letter to: justinsfrogproject@gmail.com

BONUS: We would also love a picture of you holding up your letter.

LEARN MORE HERE: www.ForTheLoveOfFrogs.com

Large empty rounded rectangular box for drawing or illustration.

Seven horizontal lines for writing.

First Name, Age
State/Country

Empty rounded rectangular box for name and contact information.

